

FrontLine SIX x-clear Ltd

SIX Securities Services Private website

Information move from public to private section on webpage

1.0 Overview

SIX x-clear Ltd will be making changes to its webpage.

2.0 Effective date

6 March 2017

3.0 Details

The clearing section will be moved to the SIX Securities Services private section.

By entering the SIX Securities Services private section (www.six-securities-services.com > Login > Securities Services Private > Clearing), members will find all the available information.

The SIX Securities Services private section can only be accessed with a password. The members who are not in possession of a password can request this by registering via the login function in the clearing section of our webpage at www.six-securities-services.com to register, it is essential to mention the BP ID and company name.

We kindly ask all website users to already note down the URL and to update all existing bookmarks.

If you experience any problems logging in to the website, please contact our ServiceDesk (T +41 58 399 4848).

4.0 Contact

If you have any further questions, please contact your Relationship Manager. The contact details are mentioned in the list of SIX SIS contacts published at www.six-securities-services.com > Login > Securities Services Private > Contacts > List of SIX SIS contacts.

In this context, SIX x-clear Ltd draws the Members' attention to clauses 7.1 lit. f., chapter 17.0 and 25.3 General Terms and Conditions of SIX x-clear Ltd stipulating that the Member bears responsibility for the tax requirements and consequences of clearing with x-clear pursuant to the Applicable Law and that SIX x-clear Ltd assumes no liability for any charges or other negative consequences arising in conjunction with clearing through SIX x-clear Ltd that are a result of tax laws or ordinances issued by tax authorities pursuant to the Applicable Law.